PUPIL NOTES

THURSDAY

28 MARCH 2019

- 1. ACTIVITY DAYS MOUNTAIN BIKING: Due to a lack of people signing up, the overnight mountain biking trip will not happen during activity days. However, there will be two days of mountain biking, and these will be free of charge! The plan is to go to Glenlivet on Monday and the Monster Trails at Fochabers on Tuesday.
- 2. SWIMMING GALA 2019: Well done to all those who took part, and thanks very much to the senior pupils and sports leaders who kept the event running. Congratulations to Fiddich (222 points) who were the winners!
- 3. JUNIOR RANGER PROGRAMME 2019: Do you want to take part in an initiative to explore, connect and conserve our amazing local landscape? The annual Junior Ranger Programme is run in partnership with Cairngorm National Park. It involves outdoor sports, skills and practical conservation work, as well as the chance to gain a John Muir Award. There are 12 spaces available for the 5-day project, open to S1 & S2 as well as the chance for past Rangers to join us as Ambassadors. If you are interested, see Mr Turner before the end of the day TOMORROW.
- 4. GREC ANNE FRANK AWARDS: Do you have something to say about equality, Children's Rights or promoting positive relationships? Tell us, and have a night out! More info on the board opposite the office, or outside Room 8.
- 5. HOUSE ASSEMBLIES: There will be Achievement House Assemblies during Period 7 TODAY. Pupils should go to their period 7 class as normal making their way to the following locations with bags and jackets as follows:
Fiddich – Auditorium, 3.15pm sharp
Livet – Fleming Hall, Auditorium at 2.55pm sharp. Livet pupils will then be accompanied by members of staff to the Fleming Hall.
